Fashion-forward T-shirts and more to cheer up
and cheer on cancer survivors and co-survivors

Do you know someone with cancer? ...

* ... but aren't sure what to say or how to help?

Do you have or have you survived cancer? ...

* ... but struggle with talking about it? With asking for or accepting help? With "finding a new normal"?

* Did it affect your self-image? Create feelings of isolation?

Are you taking care of someone with cancer? Do you struggle with being overwhelmed by your feelings or circumstances?

"When the young surgeon called me a HOT CHICK, it was huge because he treated me first like a person - like a WOMAN - and not like a lab rat or a cancer patient. As far as I'm concerned, ALL of us dealing with a cancer diagnosis are HAUTE CHICKS"

To heck with simply slapping a pink ribbon on a shirt and calling it a day — our fresh and sophisticated tees will make survivors, caregivers and co-survivors look good and feel better in trendy t-shirts you'll want to wear out and about (rather than just to mow the lawn in ...)

The deeper intention behind our t-shirts and our website HAUTE-CHICKS.COM is to make everyone — survivors, caregivers and co-survivors (family, friends, co-workers, healthcare providers) — more comfortable talking about, having, or helping someone with cancer.

 Let's make it cool to have cancer!

 Be a hottie in our haute-tees!
